To Jessica Lewis or to Whom It May Concern,

I am very excited to share with you that Winslow High School will soon have a Performing Arts program! These arts have always been much beloved and, I'm finding, for the past 6 years, much missed!

Things have changed, though. A typical drama program will not do. Our program must adapt to suit these new times and new students. In order to accommodate these new factors, we are adding a live stream/broadcasting channel and studio to the traditional stage production format. Students can acquire the skills and experience needed for future careers in the business...Show Business! This part of the program also gives students the opportunity to explore and interact with the community through journalism projects, as well as offering a unique look into student works and achievements by providing live footage of school sports and events. Family and fans need not ever miss a thing, when it comes to all things Bulldogs.

Currently, we are developing our very first stage production. The students have their hands in every part of this show, from writing and tech design to costumes and acting. We are determined to make our debut a phenomenal one. As this will be the first impression, we realize that the future of our program relies on its success. This is where we turn to you, neighbor. The Council's support of our program offers an extra level of legitimacy that will be a great benefit in our endeavors. The community knows the Arts Council and it is this familiarity that inspires us to come to you, seeking support so that we may achieve our plans and dreams. We ask for your help to make this program a success. As we are starting from scratch, we are in dire need of funding. We are also asking for permission and the honor to call the Arts Council our benefactor and program ally. Whether it be a one time charitable monetary gift or a recurring sponsorship of support, we appreciate your generosity and willingness to be a part of providing a vital creative outlet for our students.

We are also eager to show our appreciation for your help and participation. Most often, exposure and advertising are the preferred benefits of giving to schools, which we will do in spades. For example, including your logo and message in our playbills or on our banners at events, or having them displayed during our live broadcasts and social media content are some of the ways we plan to return support for our sponsors. We wish to help benefit the Council and its mission in any way we can. Strengthening the relationship between the community and our school, through art, entertainment, communication, and sharing is a big part of our own mission and we value every bit of help we receive to get there.

Feel free to contact me anytime or for any reason. We look forward to entertaining the community and making this town proud. I can be reached via call or text at 928 589-7735 or email at mdunton@wusd1.org.

I look forward to hearing from you and speaking with you further about the future.

Sincerely,

Ms. Poppy and the WHS Media Bulldogs
